

This Week in Sports

Hiram College Terriers | Volume 05-11 | October 31, 2005

EVENTS

Friday:

- HOME EVENT
VB vs Wooster 5:30pm.
(NCAC Semi-Finals; Admission is free for students with IDs; faculty and staff with IDs pay $1; Adults $5.

Saturday:

- HOME EVENT
FB vs Kenyon 1pm. Halftime entertainment is 15-minute all-women's football game played by Hiram students.
- HOME EVENT
VB vs Wittenberg 2pm. (NCAC Championship match-provided Hiram beats Wooster on Friday); Admission is free for students with IDs; faculty and staff with IDs pay $1; Adults $5.
Video iPod giveaway—When Hiram plays this match, someone will walk away with a brand new 30GB Video iPod. Buy a ticket at the door for $1 to be entered in the contest.
- WBB @ Muskingum (scrimmage) 9am.

Sunday:

- HOME EVENT
MBB vs Muskingum (scrimmage) 12pm.

Other:

- MSC finished 6-10-2 (2-5-2) for 7th place in the NCAC.
- WSC finished 3-14-1 (1-7) for 9th place in the NCAC.

Volleyball Team Seals First-Ever Regular-Season NCAC Championship. Volleyball player Jen Hlebovy is NCAC Player of the Week. Football player Max Kravitz ties Hiram record for longest touchdown reception (83 yards).

In the News

Jen Hlebovy Named NCAC Player of the Week

Women's Cross Country: 9th Place at NCAC Championships

Women's Soccer: Allegheny 8, Hiram 0

Men's Soccer: Hiram 2, Kenyon 1

Men's Cross Country: 10th Place at NCAC Championships

Volleyball: Hiram 3, Oberlin 0

Women's Soccer: Hiram 3, Shawnee State 2 in OT

Volleyball: Hiram 3, Kenyon 0

Tim Rice Featured in NCAA DVD

Football: Wooster 59, Hiram 17

Did you know?

Head Baseball Coach
Howard Jenter

Has coached three players who have gone on to professional careers?

For the latest information about Terrier Athletics, visit hiram.edu/athletics.

Candy Rice

Director of Sport Marketing
330.569.5495
riceck@hiram.edu

What do you think?

No poll question this week.

Last week's poll results