

This Week in Sports

Hiram College Terriers | Volume 05-15 | November 28, 2005

EVENTS

Wednesday:

- MBB @ Case Western Reserve 7:30pm
- WBB @ Chatham 7pm

Thursday:

- HOME EVENT
Men's JV vs Myers 7:30pm

Friday:

- S&D @ Grove City TBA

Saturday:

- S&D @ Grove City TBA
- HOME EVENT
WBB vs Ohio Wesleyan 1pm
- HOME EVENT
MBB vs Ohio Wesleyan 3pm
Browns/Steelers Tickets Giveaway. Must be in attendance at both basketball games to be eligible to win tickets for Dec 24th game in Cleveland. Watch for flyers and table cards around campus this week for more information.

Three football players earned All-NCAC honors; Trevor Henderson, Max Kravitz, and Steve Boxler.

Two current softball players earned National Fastpitch Coaches Association Academic All-America honors for 2004-05; Kelly Melvin and Rachel Unsinger.

Swimming & Diving coach Jack Groselle was featured on the cover of the American Farmer magazine.

Men's Basketball Assistant Coach Gabriel Michael played in the annual Mud Bowl football game in Buffalo, New York. His team won the game and raised $1500 for the Juvenile Diabetes Research foundation and Hospice Buffalo charities.

In the News

Women's Basketball: Manchester 91, Hiram 78

Former Hiram Coach Steve Belichick Dead at 86

Max Kravitz Named All-NCAC

Men's Basketball: La Roche 78, Hiram 67

Kelly Melvin Named NFCA All-America Scholar-Athlete

Trevor Henderson Named All-NCAC

Jack Groselle Featured in American Farmer Magazine

Rachel Unsinger Named NFCA All-America Scholar-Athlete

Stephen Boxler Named All-NCAC

Did you know?

Men's Basketball Assistant Coach Gabriel Michael

Went 19-0 as the 9th grade boys' basketball coach at Canisius High School?

For the latest information about Terrier Athletics, visit hiram.edu/athletics.

Candy Rice

Director of Sport Marketing
330.569.5495
riceck@hiram.edu

What do you think?

Tell us.