

Hiram College's Center for Literature, Medicine and Biomedical Humanities
Presents

“9,000 Needles” Documentary Screening

After suffering a devastating stroke, and having reached the confines of the American health care system, forty year old Devin Dearth takes an unconventional journey to China in search of the care he needs and a fighting chance at recovery.

Director Doug Dearth will be on campus to answer questions following the screening.

December 8, 2010
Kennedy Center Ballroom, Hiram College
7 p.m.