Disability in 21st Century America: Political, Social and Cultural Imperatives

A Lecture by

Dr. Simi Linton

Disabled students are entering colleges and universities in record numbers. Hiram College and other institutions have an opportunity to create responsive and inclusive environments. What can Hiram do, and what can each member of the college community do, to make this a reality?

Hiram College Kennedy Center Ballroom
Tuesday, October 8, 2013
12 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

This event is free and open to the public.
