SPANISH FOR THE PROFESSIONS (minor)

FAST FACTS
• The College sponsors a program that invites international students from French and Spanish speaking universities to campus to serve as teaching assistants in order to provide students with informal opportunities to practice speaking their language of study in real-life, informal situations.

WHAT YOU’LL LEARN
• Designed for students who may be expected to use the Spanish language in the workplace
• Students take courses like “Spanish for Healthcare Professionals,” “Spanish for Business,” and “Spanish Translation”

What can you do with a Spanish for the Professions minor?
Combining your major with a Spanish for the Professions minor can give you an edge in finding a career in an increasingly global world. Pair your minor with fields like nursing, business, educations, political science, economics, accounting or sociology to become:
• a translator/interpreter
• an international nurse
• a foreign services officer
• a global sales manager
• a travel guide
• a diplomat
• a national security agent
• an immigration officer
• a social worker
• a teacher/professor
• a foreign correspondent
