HISTORY

FAST FACTS
• The history department is located in Pendleton House, a beautiful restored century home.
• Hands-on learning opportunities are available with organizations like the Garfield Historical Society and the Hiram College Archives.

WHAT YOU’LL LEARN
• Study a combination of American, European and world history.
• Learn the research and interpretive techniques used by professional historians.
• Choose from three optional concentrations: History and Law, Gender History and regional histories, such as Asian History.
• Major in Integrated Social Studies through our Education Department.
• Take unique classes like “Kings and Vikings,” “From Brothel to Factory: History of Female Labor in Asia,” “Early Modern Occult” and “American Environmental History.”

STUDY ABROAD
As part of our faculty-led study abroad trips, students have traveled to Japan, sailed the Caribbean Sea and learned about medieval English history and literature in English towns and cities like London, Bath, Stonehenge, Stratford-upon-Avon and York.

(over)

What can you do with a History degree?
You could become:
• a curator
• an archivist
• a historian
• a professor
• a documentary editor
• a writer
• a librarian
• a paralegal
• a lawyer
• a historical consultant

(over)
GET INVOLVED
Join the student-run History Club, which hosts speakers and sponsors campus-wide events, or Phi Alpha Theta, the national history honor society.

CAREER CONNECTION
Some positions our alumni have held include:
• archivist in Washington, D.C.
• history professor
• lawyer
• director of a major university press
• manuscript specialist with the Western Historical Manuscript Collection

Some graduate schools our alumni have attended include:
• Carnegie Mellon University
• College of William and Mary
• George Washington University
• Capitol University Law School
• Cleveland State University Law School
• Rutgers University
• Claremont School of Theology
• Case Western Reserve University
• Clemson University

Learn more: www.hiram.edu/history

FACULTY MEMBERS WITH A PH.D. 95%

MAJORS
Accounting and Financial Management
Applied Computer Science
Art, Film, and Digital Design
Biochemistry
Biology
Biomedical Humanities
Chemistry
Communication
Computer Science
Creative Writing
Criminal Justice
Education Licensure
Educational Studies
English
Environmental Studies
History
Integrative Exercise Science
International Studies
Management
Marketing
Neuroscience
Nursing
Performing Arts: Music and Theatre
Physics
Political Science
Psychology
Public Health
Sociology
Sports Management

Your next steps
Apply online at admission.hiram.edu.
Questions? Contact the Office of Admission at admission@hiram.edu, or 800.362.5280.