

AMANDA L. ARMENI, CPA

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

---

August 2009 – Present

Hiram College

Associate Professor of Accounting & Financial Management (tenured in 2015)

Department Chair – Department of Economics, Management & Accounting (2017-2019)

- Instruct courses accumulating to between 22 – 30 credit hours per year using traditional delivery methods as well as online and hybrid; utilize Microsoft suite of products for delivery of resources to students as well as the Moodle LMS
- Advise between 30-45 undergraduate students throughout the year, which includes resume review, interview training, and course scheduling
- Serve as Assessment Coordinator for multiple programs (Accounting, Management, Marketing)
- Serve as the faculty advisor for the Ohio Society of CPA student ambassador, including arranging for high school and college visits and presentations
- Prepare annual course schedule for Accounting, Management, Marketing and Economics
- Manage program discretionary spending fund
- Oversee annual reviews for department faculty (between 3-5 members)
- Establish curriculum for and on-going development of Accounting major under the University Partnership agreement with Lorain County Community College, Cuyahoga Community College and Lakeland Community College
- Develop new courses for Accounting major – Professional Responsibilities and Small Business Accounting Workshop
- Organize events for accounting majors
  - Accounting Networking Event 2009-present (2020 virtual networking event)
  - Student attendance at the Meonske Conference – Kent State University 2010-2014; 2016-2018
- Participate in on-campus faculty/staff committees
  - Appointment, Tenure & Promotion Committee; August 2019 – Present
  - Faculty-Trustee Committee; August 2017 – May 2021
  - Judicial Review Board; April 2014 – August 2020
  - Academic Review Board; August 2015 – May 2019
  - Assessment Committee; September 2010 – August 2016

COURSES TAUGHT

- Financial Accounting (Fall 2010 – present)
Traditional and online delivery
Utilize Excel in a variety of teaching strategies to improve student learning
- Professional Responsibilities (Fall 2011 – present)
Prepare original case studies requiring critical thinking and application of ethical decision making
- Intermediate Accounting II (Spring 2010 – present)
Traditional and online delivery
Utilize Excel in a variety of teaching strategies to improve student learning
- Auditing (Fall 2009 – present)
Traditional, online and blended delivery
Prepare original audit cases requiring students to request and document evidence and form conclusions on controls and account balances

- Accounting Information Systems (Fall 2009 – present)
Traditional and online delivery
Organize walkthroughs of Hiram College processes for students to engage in
- Financial Decision Making (Spring 2010 – Spring 2015)
- Freshman Colloquium – Fall 2016

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

---

May 2005 – August 2009

Ernst & Young LLP

Senior Auditor

- Performed audit procedures, including internal control and substantive testing
- Managed two to five staff persons work and provide guidance towards completion of their assigned tasks in the Auditing & Assurance Services group
- Assisted in the training of new staff persons on assigned engagements and participate in firm mentoring activities
- Oversaw daily administrative operations of multiple audits

EDUCATION

---

2005 - 2006     The University of Notre Dame     South Bend, IN

Master of Science in Accountancy

- Cum Laude

2001 - 2005     Mount Union College     Alliance, OH

Bachelor of the Arts – Business Finance

- Magna Cum Laude

SCHOLARLY PRESENTATIONS

---

American Accounting Association SPARK Virtual Meeting – June 2020

Bringing Accounting to Life with Real-World Cases

American Accounting Association Regional Meeting – April 2016

Poster presentation on Online & Hybrid Learning in Accounting courses

Institute of Management Accountants Ethics Update – April 2017, April 2015, November 2013

Presentation on different ethics topics to accounting professionals from the Cleveland area

OTHER ACTIVITIES & AWARDS

---

Martin Award Recipient – Hiram College – 2021, 2015, 2011

Tenured to Hiram College Faculty – Hiram College - 2015

Athena Award Finalist – Youngstown/Warren Regional Chamber of Commerce - 2015

Michael Starr Award Recipient – Hiram College - 2012

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS AND MEMBERSHIPS

---

Certified Public Accountant – License #45835*

Member – American Accounting Association, Mahoning Valley Accounting Society*